Introducing Maureen Ryan

After earning her bachelor's degree in interior design, Maureen worked with several well-known hotel design firms in Los Angeles. She later opened her own firm, Maureen Ryan Design, Ltd., specializing in both commercial and residential projects.

Maureen's design services include consultations, space planning, the selection and specification of colors, interior finishes and furnishings, as well as the design of custom furniture, finishes, lighting and carpets. With more than thirty years in the industry, she has been a professional member of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) since 1985.
